

Savoca and Forza d' Agrò

7 hour

The so called "God Father" tour. The tour will start from the small but interesting town of Savoca; first thing to see is the "Bar Vitelli", where you can sit down and taste a fresh granita, while thinking that here Michael Corleone asked Apollonia's father for her hand in marriage.

With a short walk through the narrow streets you can enjoy looking at the wedding church where they got married, which name is Santa Lucia. Forza d'Agrò is the next town to visit, like many of the most charming villages in Italy, it sits on a hill overlooking Taormina.

Characteristic medieval village, Savoca layes on a hill and includes the Cappuccini cloister, where there are some mummified monks and nobles, Vitelli's bar and the church Santa Lucia.
