

Tuscan Countryside

9 hour

Full day over the Tuscan countryside. The itinerary is subject change according to your city of departure. Your English speaking driver and a guide will pick you up to take you thru this lovely day. Montepulciano, Pienza, Montalcino, the Orcia Valley and many sites will be seen today including the Abbey of S. Antimo, built by Charles the Great. You will also stop to admire the unique Abbey of Monte Oliveto Maggiore and discover the inlaid wooden works the Benedictine monks made around year 1000, way before this technique became popular in 1400s.

Unesco site since the 1990s, you will also drive thru the so called "clay hills of Siena" to admire the colors this land offers to visitors. The English speaking driver and your guide, will make this day unforgettable. A lunch in a local Trattoria will be reserved for you (cost additional). In the case you travel from Florence, you will meet your guide in Siena.
